DETAILED ACTION

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Applicant's Abstract currently includes legal phraseology including "said".

Appropriate correction is required.

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

Applicant's Specification does not include section headings (such as "Brief Summary of the Invention" and "Brief Description of the Drawings" along with all other appropriate section headings) as required by 37 CFR 1.77C.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 2, in the amended claims, the wheel is claimed to have a fixed member adapted to be fixed to the vehicle chassis. This is inaccurate and unclear.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Prior Art does not disclose a suspension stop having a fixed and rotating member and rotation is detected by a pulse generating coder to sense the angular position and using a calculating means to a vertical force from the sense angular position.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ducloux et al. (USPN 5,947,459), Yamaoka et al. (USPN 5,163,660), Nakamura (USPN 5,226,635), Aoki (USPN 5,330,166), Buma (USPN 4,773,635), Oyama et al. (USPN 4,971,348).
